Vegetarian | No onion | No garlic | No eggs | No meat | No fish | Gluten Free*

Cookware: Cast-iron tawa (not aluminium)

INGREDIENTS - 4 PORTIONS

QTY	UNIT	APPROX	INGREDIENT
2	cups	~ 60 g	spinach blanched
1	cup	~ 150 g	peas, 2 potatoes
2	tbsp	~ 16 g	besan roasted
20	g		fresh ginger, crushed
2	pieces	~ 16 g	green chillies, slit
1/2	tsp	~ 1.2 g	garam masala (no onion-garlic powder)
1	tsp	~ 6 g	salt, or to taste
1/2	tsp	~ 1.2 g	chaat masala (check no onion-garlic)
2	tbsp	~ 28 g	ghee

METHOD

- Mise en place. Weigh every item for 4 portions. Set a cast-iron tawa (not aluminium) and a stainless steel pot of salted water. Check garam masala and chaat masala contain no onion or garlic powder.
- Wash 2 cups spinach. Blanch in boiling water 45-60 seconds until wilted and bright. Shock in cold water. Squeeze very dry in a clean cloth - excess water makes kebabs collapse. Chop fine.
- Boil 2 medium potatoes (about 250 g) until a knife slips through, 12-15 minutes. Drain. Steam-dry 2 minutes. Peel and mash while warm, leaving a little texture.
- Boil or steam 1 cup green peas until tender, 4-5 minutes. Drain well. Lightly crush - do not puree to paste.
- Dry-roast 2 tbsp (16 g) besan in a steel kadai on low heat 3-4 minutes until the raw smell goes and the flour turns biscuit-coloured. Cool.
- In a steel bowl combine spinach, potato, peas, roasted besan, 20 g crushed ginger, 2 finely chopped green chillies, 1/2 tsp garam masala, 1/2 tsp chaat masala and 1 tsp salt. Mix until the mass holds when pressed. If wet, add 1 tbsp more roasted besan; if dry and cracking, sprinkle 1 tsp water.
- Rest 10 minutes. Divide into 12 portions of about 40 g. Shape into tikkis 1.5 cm thick with even edges so they brown evenly.
- Chill 15 minutes uncovered on a steel tray - this sets the starch and stops them breaking on the tawa.
- Heat the cast-iron tawa to medium. Add 1 tbsp ghee. When it shimmers, place kebabs without crowding. Cook 3-4 minutes until a deep green-brown crust forms. Flip once. Add remaining ghee as needed. Do not press hard or the filling squeezes out.
- Doneness: crust set, centre hot, no raw potato taste. Drain briefly on a steel rack.
- Serve hot, 3 kebabs per portion, with imli chutney or plain dahi. Label allergens before the pass.

CHEF NOTES

Squeeze spinach bone-dry. Water is the usual reason kebabs break. Roasted besan is the binder - raw besan tastes pasty. Chill shaped kebabs at least 15 minutes before the tawa. Medium heat only; high heat colours the outside and leaves a wet centre. Make-ahead: shape and chill up to 6 hours. Fry to order. If grilling, make slightly thicker kebabs and oil the bars; chill 30 minutes first.

SERVICE NOTES

Serve immediately while crisp or hot. Offer a chutney or raita that is also onion-garlic free. Service temperature: Hot. Paneer tikka (dahi-ajwain, no garlic)

YIELD 4 portions	PORTION 1 portion	SERVICE Hot	TIME Prep 25 min - Cook 20 min
--	---	-----------------------------------	--

Cookware: Cast-iron grill or steel oven tray - never aluminium foil

INGREDIENTS - 4 PORTIONS

QTY	UNIT	APPROX	INGREDIENT
400	g		paneer cubes
1	cup	~ 240 g	hung dahi
1	tsp	~ 2.5 g	ajwain
1	tsp	~ 6 g	Kashmiri chilli, turmeric, garam masala, salt, ginger
1	pieces	~ 100 g	capsicum plus 1 tomato, cubed

METHOD

1. Mise en place. Weigh 400 g paneer and 1 cup hung dahi. Set a cast-iron grill or steel oven tray - never aluminium foil. Confirm chilli powder and garam masala have no onion or garlic powder.
2. Cut paneer into even 2.5 cm cubes. Pat very dry. Cut capsicum and tomato into similar squares so they cook in the same time.
3. In a steel bowl whisk hung dahi with 1 tsp ajwain, 1 tsp Kashmiri chilli, turmeric, garam masala, salt and crushed ginger to a thick marinade that coats a spoon. No garlic paste.
4. Fold paneer and vegetables through the marinade until every face is coated. Cover. Marinate 1 hour refrigerated (or 20 minutes at the pass if you are short of time).
5. Thread onto steel skewers, alternating paneer and vegetable, leaving a little space between cubes so heat can circulate.
6. Heat the cast-iron grill to medium-high until a drop of water dances. Brush with ghee. Lay skewers. Do not crowd.
7. Grill 3-4 minutes per side until the dahi takes charred spots and the paneer is hot through. Turn with tongs. Brush once more with ghee.
8. Doneness: edges blistered, centre hot, dahi set not wet. Rest 1 minute so juices settle.
9. Finish with lemon juice at the pass. Serve 1 skewer per portion, hot. Hold no more than 10 minutes or the tikka steams and goes rubbery.

CHEF NOTES

For Paneer tikka (dahi-ajwain, no garlic): keep the mix slightly drier than you think; wet mixes split or go greasy. Bloom hing in hot fat 20-30 seconds; raw hing tastes medicinal. Commercial hing is often cut with wheat flour - use a gluten-free hing if you must mark Gluten Free. Never cook tomato, tamarind, lemon, yogurt or milk in aluminium; use stainless steel, iron, clay or glass. Spice blends: read the packet. Many garam masalas hide onion or garlic powder. Pat paneer dry and do not boil it hard or it turns rubbery. Bring yogurt to a simmer gently and stir; a rolling boil can split it.

4	-	~ 80 g	potatoes
1	cup	~ 150 g	peas, cumin, hing, amchur, chilli, coriander, salt

METHOD

1. Mise en place. Weigh 3 cups maida, ghee, ajwain and filling vegetables. Set a steel kadhai for frying - never aluminium. Oil should be 6-8 cm deep.
2. Rub ghee into maida with 1 tsp ajwain and salt until the mix looks like damp sand. Add water a spoon at a time to a firm dough. Rest covered 20 minutes.
3. Boil 4 potatoes until tender. Drain, steam-dry, peel and mash coarsely. Blanch 1 cup peas 3 minutes. Drain.
4. Heat ghee in a steel kadhai. Bloom cumin and a pinch of hing 20-30 seconds. Add potato, peas, chilli, coriander, amchur and salt. Cook 4-5 minutes until the filling is dry enough to hold a shape. Cool completely.
5. Divide dough into 10 balls. Roll each to a 15 cm oval. Cut in half. Form a cone, seal the straight edge with water, fill 2 tbsp cooled filling, seal the mouth firmly. No air pockets.
6. Heat oil to 170-175 C (a scrap of dough should rise in 8-10 seconds, not brown at once). Fry 4-5 samosas at a time.
7. Fry 8-10 minutes, turning, until blistered and deep gold. If they brown in under 4 minutes the oil is too hot and the pastry stays raw.
8. Doneness: pastry crisp, filling steaming hot, no greasy patches. Drain on a steel rack.
9. Serve hot with imli chutney. Hold 20 minutes in a low oven on a rack, not stacked. Label gluten and frying oil.

20	g		fresh ginger, crushed
1/2	tsp	~ 1.2 g	hing

METHOD

- Mise en place. Pick through 1 kg mustard greens, 250 g spinach and optional bathua. Wash in several changes of water until grit is gone. Set a heavy stainless steel kadhai - never aluminium.
- Chop greens roughly. Slice ginger and green chilli. Keep 3 tbsp makki atta ready for thickening.
- Put greens, ginger, chilli and salt in the kadhai with a splash of water. Cover. Cook on medium-low 35-45 minutes until the mustard is fully soft and the smell of raw saag is gone.
- Mash with a wooden mathani or a potato masher to a coarse puree - not a blender slurry unless you prefer it smooth. Leave some fibre.
- Sprinkle makki atta. Stir 8-10 minutes on low so the flour cooks out and the saag thickens to a slow ribbon. Add a little hot water if it catches.
- In a small steel tadka pan heat ghee. Bloom 1/2 tsp hing, remaining ginger and chilli 20-30 seconds. Pour over the saag. Stir.
- Doneness: saag is silky, no raw maize-flour taste, mustard heat present but not bitter. Rest 3 minutes off the heat.

1	cup	~ 150 g	sabut urad
1/2	cup	~ 75 g	chana dal, soaked
20	g		fresh ginger, crushed
2	pieces	~ 200 g	ripe tomatoes, chopped

1	tsp	~ 6 g	salt, or to taste

METHOD

- Mise en place. Wash 1 cup sabut urad and 1/2 cup chana dal. Soak 30 minutes. Set a heavy stainless steel pot - langar dal wants a long, quiet simmer, never aluminium.
- Drain. Cover with fresh water by 4 cm. Add turmeric, sliced ginger and salt. Bring to a boil. Skim foam.
- Simmer 75-90 minutes, stirring every 10 minutes, until both dals collapse and the liquor is creamy. Add hot water as needed; the dal should look like a thick porridge, not soup.
- Mash a third of the pot against the side so the gravy binds. Stir in chopped tomato. Cook 8 minutes until the tomato melts.
- Tadka: heat ghee in a steel pan. Bloom cumin and hing 20-30 seconds, then chilli powder off the heat so it does not burn. Pour over the dal. Cover 2 minutes to trap the aroma.
- Doneness: urad skins soft, chana creamy, no chalky centre. Salt should taste round, not sharp.
- Serve hot in steel bowls, 1 ladle per portion, with roti or rice. Hold like langar: hot, loose, stirred. Cool quickly if storing. Reheat to a full simmer once.
